

Second in Charge - Toorak

The name Haigh's has been synonymous with fine chocolates since 1915 and we are very proud to be the oldest family-owned chocolate manufacturing retailer in Australia.

We currently have a vacancy for Second in Charge employee to join our team in the Toorak store.

Working closely with the Store Manager, this exciting role involves merchandising responsibility for the shop front and leading the team in the day-to-day operation of the store, requiring a very strong customer service focus and superior merchandising standards.

With the ability to coordinate both the front and back of house areas in an organised and systematic fashion, you will have the opportunity to exert influence on the day-to-day running of the store, whilst developing yourself professionally within a growing, national specialty food purveyor.

You will require extensive retail experience and the ability to lead, develop and performance manage a retail team, together with the completion of a Certificate III Retail Operations or the willingness to engage in this training (fully subsidised). This is an ideal opportunity for someone interested in developing a long term career in store management.

Haigh's offer a competitive salary and other benefits include paid training, generous staff discounts, EAP program and a mix of weekend-free work cycles (2 weekend days only in every 4 week cycle).
